

The Honorable Ricardo S. Martinez

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Plaintiff

v.

JENNI YOON JEONG LEE,
Defendant.

NO. CR25 - 039 RSM

DISCOVERY PROTECTIVE ORDER

This matter, having come to the Court's attention on the Stipulation for Entry of a Discovery Protective Order submitted by the United States of America and Defendant Jenni Lee, and the Court, having considered the motion, and being fully advised in this matter, hereby enters the following DISCOVERY PROTECTIVE ORDER:

1. Protected Material

The following are deemed Protected Material: materials so designated by counsel for the United States that contain personal identifying information about individuals not parties to this litigation or that of a co-defendant, where due to the volume and nature of the underlying discovery material and the charged crimes the government does not believe redaction can reasonably address the same confidentiality concerns. The United

1 States will make available copies of the Protected Material, including those filed under 2 seal, to defense counsel to comply with the government's discovery obligations.

3 Possession of copies of the Protected Material is limited to the attorneys of record, and 4 investigators, paralegals, law clerks, experts, and assistants for the attorneys of record
5 (hereinafter collectively referred to as members of the defense team).

6 2. Scope of Review of Protected Material

7 Defense attorneys of record and members of the defense team may display and 8 review the Protected Material with the Defendant. The attorneys of record and members 9 of the defense team acknowledge that providing copies of the Protected Material to the 10 Defendant and other persons is prohibited, and they agree not to duplicate and provide 11 copies of Protected Material to the Defendant and other persons. Defense counsel may 12 provide to the Defendant a redacted copy of the Protected Material that has either (a) 13 been redacted by government counsel or (b) been redacted by defense counsel and 14 approved by government counsel.

15 3. Consent to Terms of Protective Order

16 The attorney of record for the Defendant is required, prior to disseminating any 17 copies of the Protected Material to permitted recipients, such as other members of the 18 defense team, to provide a copy of this Protective Order to those permitted recipients, and 19 to obtain the written consent by those recipients of the terms and conditions of this 20 Protective Order. Such written consent shall not, however, be required with respect to 21 members of the defense team who are employed by the same office as the attorney of 22 record; in such case, it shall be sufficient for the attorney of record to provide a copy of 23 this Protective Order to such other members of the defense team and to remind them of 24 their obligations under the Order. The written consent need not be disclosed or produced 25 to the United States unless requested by the government and ordered by the Court.

1           4.     Parties' Reciprocal Discovery Obligations

2           Nothing in this order should be construed as imposing any discovery obligations
3 on the government or the Defendant that are different from those imposed by case law
4 and Rule 16 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, and the Local Criminal Rules

5           5.     Filing of Protected Material

6           Any Protected Material that is filed with the Court in connection with pre-trial 7 motions, trial, sentencing, or other matter before this Court, shall be filed under seal and 8 shall remain sealed until otherwise ordered by this Court. This does not entitle either 9 party to seal their filings as a matter of course. The parties are required to comply in all 10 respects to the relevant local and federal rules of criminal procedure pertaining to the 11 sealing of court documents.

12          6.     Nontermination

13          The provisions of this Order shall not terminate at the conclusion of this 14 prosecution. The provisions of this Order shall terminate only by court order.
